service agreement terms and conditions

While every effort will be made to secure a desired toll free number, FIBERNET regrets that we cannot guarantee any new number until it is installed. The undersigned hereby authorizes FIBERNET to act as the responsible organization ("RESPORG") for the above toll-free numbers. The undersigned understands that this authorization is in accordance with all applicable FIBERNET state and federal tariffs and any accompanying terms and conditions. The undersigned is not an agent for any third party and represents and warrants that it is the exclusive end using subscriber of the 8XX number(s) listed herein and agrees to hold harmless and indemnify FIBERNET from all liability and expenses for any breach of that representation and warranty. By signing this order, the undersigned also acknowledges that if this is a new 8XX number, this 8XX number is not the property of the undersigned until the 8XX number is actually ringing to the ring-to number or DNIS listed above. The undersigned further represents and warrants that FIBERNET will be and are harmless from any damages that may arise from this new 8XX number not being available to the
